Projects

Talabat Backend System | .NET Core, Clean Architecture & DDD

- Architected an enterprise-grade food delivery backend using Clean Architecture and DDD, ensuring zero infrastructure leakage into core business domain.
- Implemented CQRS via MediatR to segregate read/write operations, improving performance, maintainability, and scalability.
- Built a centralized OAuth2.0 & OpenID Connect authority using Duende IdentityServer with PKCE flow, role-based authorization, and custom JWT claims.
- Separated endpoints across Customer API, Admin API, Delivery API, and Identity Server for strict domain boundary isolation.
- Leveraged Redis for shopping cart caching and applied Optimistic Concurrency Control (RowVersion) to prevent race conditions during order dispatching.
- Wrote automated Architecture Tests to continuously validate Clean Architecture layer dependency constraints.
